Moderator and Panel Biographies

Michael Geller

Architect, Planner, Real Estate Consultant and Property Developer

Michael Geller is a Vancouver based architect, planner, real estate consultant and property developer with four decades' experience in the public, private and institutional sectors.

Michael is President of THE GELLER GROUP, which comprises Michael Geller & Associates Limited (MGAL), active in planning and real estate consulting; Laneway Cottages Inc. which is seeking opportunities to develop laneway housing around the region; and Geller Properties Inc., a builder of small, 'niche' residential projects including apartments for people who do not want to live in apartments.

Cheryl Kathler

Retired Community Planner, City of North Vancouver

As a community planner in the City of North Vancouver, the focus of Cheryl's work was developing municipal responses to a wide range of community issues to facilitate a liveable and sustainable community. Much of her work concerned seniors and housing, including development of a widely adopted Adaptable Design policy which addresses aging in place, and innovative affordable and rental housing policies and practices for which North Vancouver City is known.

In addition to participation in numerous collaborative projects and regional and provincial committees related to social issues, Cheryl has served on non-profit Boards including Planning Institute of BC, Hastings Park Conservancy, Your Local Farmers Market Society and the Real Estate Foundation of BC.
